THE TURK MURPHY JAZZ BAND

Home-based in San Francisco, Turk Murphy and his group have been a mainstay on the music scene for over 30 years, sixteen spent at the famous Earthquake McGoon's on the edge of Chinatown. Turk has written over 50 tunes of his own, has over 20 LPs to his credit . . . and his group has had to learn over 400 tunes to keep up!

THE SALTY DOGS

Here's a group that gets together for festivals and concerts all around the country, and has appeared in just about every St. Louis National Ragtime Festival. The band was started at Purdue in 1947, with Lew Green on cornet since '56. They haven't had a major personnel change in over 15 years,

ST. LOUIS RAGTIMERS

In the early 1960's, four gentlemen devoted to the historic sounds of Jelly Roll and Joplin got together with the owner of the Goldenrod and laid groundwork for what has become the country's institution for ragtime festival devotees, the annual National Ragtime Festival in St. Louis. This group has been the host band for all 14 years.

DON KINCH'S CONDUCTORS RAGTIME BAND

The Conductors (named as a result of Don Kinch's old fondness for steam engines) roll in from Portland, ORE., where they have been a regular feature for three years at Old Town Strutters Hall. The group has appeared at the Sacramento Jazz Festival, the Puget Sound Jazz Club, and in concert throughout Oregon.

EDDY DAVIS HOT JAZZ BAND

This group was organized out of New York City to perform at concerts and festivals. Every member of the group is a fine performer and doubles on instruments. The Hot Jazz Orchestra does everything from Beiderbecke's piano pieces to Jelly Roll Morton to original compositions. This group has even composed a tune in honor of the St. Louis Ragtime Festival!

DAVID REFFKIN'S RAGTIME STRING ENSEMBLE

This unique ensemble out of Houston, TX performs ragtime and other music from the period 1890 - 1920, from the arrangements originally played at that time. Reffkin is a school orchestra director and founder/director of the Duluth/Superior Symphony Ragtime Ensemble. The pianist for the St. Louis

Festival is Daryl Ott, regular pianist with the Goldenrod Showboat.

THE BLUES EMPORIUM

This group is no newcomer to the St. Louis Levee . . . they are regular performers aboard the Robert E. Lee, just downstream. Jeanne Kittrell is a lady who easily slips from her blackboard life (she's a college professor) to her keyboard life (she's a surprisingly 'hot' mama on the vocals!)

ERNIE CARSON CAPITOL CITY JAZZ BAND

Ernie Carson is nationally recognized as one of the top cornetists in the traditional jazz idiom. Carson's first band job was with Monty Ballou and the famous Castle Jazz Band. With a number of albums under his own name, and that of his Capitol City Jazz Band, Carson hails from Atlanta, GA.

TIGER RAG FOREVER JAZZ BAND

The Tiger Rag Forever Jazz Band is a unique group of seven St. Louis musicians who play because they love their music. They play the jazz classics the way they should be played, directed toward the works of such masters as King Oliver, Louis Armstrong, Jelly Roll Morton, the Original Dixieland Jazz Band and the New Orleans Rhythm Kings. Dynamics is this band's long suit.

THE TARNISHED SIX

The T-6 recently celebrated ten years of playing together and joins us in St. Louis from Centre County, the sparsely populated geographical center of Pennsylvania. Anywhere from local bars, supermarket grand openings, parades, carnivals, conventions, art festivals and Jazz Clubs, you will find the T-6 performing with the joy and gusto for which they are best known and loved.
